

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT OF ARTISTIC DESIGN TUTORING

Region 15, American Iris Society

Name (tutee) _____ Judge's (tutor) Name _____

Club Sponsoring the Show _____ Location _____

Time spent Tutoring _____ Date _____

To The Judge: It is your duty, once accepting the assignment, to tutor and evaluate the tutee.

After the session please allow the tutee time to evaluate the artistic design entries and direct him/her in a mutual exchange of questions and responses. In this manner you can properly arrive at the evaluation below:

Rate the following items using Excellent, Good, Fair, Poor, or Not Observed before each topic:

- _____ 1. Knowledge of the basic principles for evaluation of the artistic design entries on exhibition
- _____ 2. Knowledge of the general rules and regulations in the Artistic Design Division.
- _____ 3. Ability to recognize and interpret the principles of design.
- _____ 4. Knowledge of the elements of design.
- _____ 5. Ability to recognize the three styles of designs.
- _____ 6. Ability to distinguish a traditional design from a creative type of design.
- _____ 7. Ability to interpret and apply the Scale of Points.
- _____ 8. Knowledge of AIS Show rules.
- _____ 9. Knowledge of Show awards.
- _____ 10. General knowledge of the duties and responsibilities of an AIS Show judge.
- _____ 11. Understanding of the Ethics involved in judging.
- _____ 12. Understanding the duties and responsibilities of the Artistic Design judge.
- _____ 13. Understanding the role of a tutee while receiving artistic design tutoring.

Do you feel that this tutee, if accredited, would be an asset to the program and a worthy representative of the AIS? _____

Additional Remarks: _____

Signature of Evaluating Judge _____ Date _____

Print Name _____ Region _____

Please mail this form to: Judges Training Chair, Region 15

You need not show this evaluation to the apprentice, however you should discuss the strengths above first and then the areas in which the individual needs further experience. Above all, EVALUATE RESPONSIBLY.